Cultural operator – who are you?

Name of organisation	Delta
Country	Namur, Belgium
Organisation website	https://www.ledelta.be/
Contact person	Mrs. Cristina Brandini, cristina.brandini@province.namur.be (+32)81775688
Organisation type	Public organisation
Scale of the organization	30
PIC number	Not yet registered
Aims and activities of the organisation	Our concept is based on the principle of "tiers lieu", where the public becomes an actor, where we conceive as much as we receive, where culture is experienced in a spontaneous, natural way, where it feels good to meet and share and, thanks to the interactions that took place in it, to generate a common sense. The Delta thus offers spaces favoring meeting, creativity, pooling of ideas, sharing of knowledge, practices, resources, desires ... Culture is experienced there in a total spontaneous and free way. The interior fittings highlight the conviviality and freedom of movement. The hall, the panoramic garden and the foyer of the great hall are open during the day to visitors who can practice their art, share it with others, and find common sense. A reading area offering local and national dailies, and alternative press, is accessible in the foyer. The main principles on which the programming and activities of the Delta are based are: A plural art approach: Composed of three modular performance halls, several exhibition spaces, premises for events and training, an arts documentation center, etc., Le Delta is distinguished by its cultural and artistic project which gives pride of place to an interdisciplinary approach: cinema, theater, dance, moving image, music, movement, visual arts combine to compose a rich and diversified program. Support for creation: Artists from the province, Wallonia, Belgium and beyond are a full-fledged public. The Delta promotes artistic creation, encourages the emergence of new artists and helps their dissemination. Three rehearsal and recording studios with a common control room are at their disposal. Two artistic residencies are also available, offering great creative comfort.

	Mediation: Reception and mediation staff circulates around the premises at all times and make themselves available to visitors to enable them to better understand the place. Mediation cuts across all artistic and cultural activities. It takes into account all audiences. It is aimed at single people, families and groups, school or non-school. Attention is paid to vulnerable people in consultation with associations linked to this public. A place on the territory: The Delta is not a place reserved for the residents of Namur-Ville. Being a provincial institution, its mission is addressed to the entire population, but also to artists and partners in the territory. Through different themes that punctuate the seasons of the Delta, they are associated with the construction of the program. The Delta also welcomes vulnerable audiences in a participatory dynamic. Finally, it promotes the emergence of the talents of today and tomorrow, offering artists new visibility. And why not, one day, international fame ...
