The entire project is based on the 17 UN Goals. The aim of the project was to raise children's awareness of sustainable development and a healthy lifestyle. The project was designed to develop healthy eating habits in children and to show how to use regional products and their seasonality through recipes included in the book. Our conference and book encouraged young people to continue working for sustainable development in their own households. The main activities of the project were performed at the best possible level. The conference and the publication in the form of a book were divided into two parts and published in two languages, Polish and Czech. Limited to 1500 copies. The project was co-financed by the European Regional Development Fund and the state budget. We cross borders.
