Aims and activities of the organisation	"Today" Art Initiative (TAI) has founded in 2014 year. The aim of the organisation is to develop contemporary art activities and create a platform for experimental and innovative art practices and exchanges. TAI provides opportunities to reflect society's issues and investigate today's life problems locally and internationally. The aim of exchanges and residencies is to create the dialogue between art practitioners on a larger contextual level such as identity, community, nationality. Our NGO's activities are: development of democracy, human rights sustainability. According to this we have the following goals and objectives: Our goals and objectives include the development of contemporary art science in Armenia and emphasize the activity of it in rural areas. Develop artists in residency programs in Armenia with exchange of international artists and bring the new innovative media in Armenia as collaborative art practices. Provide educational, cultural, information exchanges among youth in Armenian rural areas and other countries. For the realization of all these, we are going to organize different local and international exhibitions, festivals, seminars, researches, exchanges and artists in residency programs. We aim to pay special attention on social projects in order to help young people with fewer opportunities, for their educational processes through our non-formal educational art projects, to make them believe that they are a full member of a society, and have an important role of making the world more bright. On April of 2015 TAI did a large international mail-art exhibition in Armenia, which was the first mail-art exhibition in Armenia. It called "Art for Peace" and the main aim was to promote the importance of peace via artworks. Artists from 36 countries (Armenia, Georgia, Turkey, Egypt, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, England, Wales, Estonia, Slovakia, Ethiopia, Brazil, Japan, Hong Kong, Bangladesh, USA, Macedonia, Korea, Morocco, Poland, Ukraine, Iran, Serbia...etc), around 60 artists sent their original artworks in different techniques to Armenia. The exhibition held in one of the main art institutes of Armenia - Artists Union. Since 2014 we are running artists in residency programs in Yerevan

	and since 2019 in rural areas of Armenia. We aim to make it as exchange too by giving opportunity to local artists to travel another EU countries. Since 2014 we hosted artists from USA, Poland, Hong Kong, the UK, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Portugal..etc TAI also supports youth in their intellectual, cultural and physical development, to create necessary conditions for full involvement of youth in social-economical, political and cultural life of the society and to help the young people discover their creative potential , thus to promote participation of youth in the civic life and be citizen artists and active youth. In order to promote participation of youth in the civic society, be active artists/citizens and in various types of social youth activities , the organization took part in different youth projects of EU, where the most important projects are Youth in Action and Erasmus+ .
