Proposed Creative Europe project – to which project are you looking for partners?

Sector or field	Design – performing arts - music
Description or summary of the proposed project	The Luminy Project – a Euro-Mediterranean hub – aims to transform a distinctive site into a laboratory for artistic and pedagogical practices, rooted in contemporary challenges of transition. Through transdisciplinary summer camps and summer schools, the project seeks to experiment with new forms of creation, training, and the circulation of artists at a European scale. The project is based on the gradual transformation of the site, conceived as a tool for research and creation. The dimension of slow architecture and the site’s progressive transformation is currently considered a research axis to be further developed, deliberately left open. We specifically seek to identify a European partner capable of enriching this reflection, at the intersection of creation, ecology, and use (architecture). Based in Marseille, the project is conceived as a space for sustainable Euro-Mediterranean cooperation, with a particular focus on issues of Euro-Mediterranean circulation.
